

House Resolution No. 4889

Whereas, it is with great pride and sincere admiration that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize an extraordinary young Missouri citizen who has attained tremendous personal success through achievement in the Boy Scouts of America program; and

Whereas, Tyson Thompson of Troop 763 in Blue Springs, Missouri, received the prestigious Eagle Scout Award during a Court of Honor ceremony to be held October 25, 2003, at Chapel Hill Presbyterian Church in Blue Springs; and

Whereas, Tyson Thompson earned the praise and respect of many for the enthusiasm and initiative he displayed in regard to his Eagle Project which involved the installation of lighting to illuminate the sign in front of Chapel Hill Presbyterian Church; and

Whereas, during his ten years in the Scouting program, Tyson Thompson earned an impressive thirty-two merit badges, attained Warrior status in the Tribe of Mic-O-Say where his tribal name is "Young Wise Turning Tortoise", and participated in seven years of summer camp at the H. Roe Bartle Scout Reservation; and

Whereas, Tyson Thompson has readily prepared himself for the challenges of the outside world through his important terms of service to his Troop as Patrol Leader, Assistant Senior Patrol Leader, Scribe, and Quartermaster; and

Whereas, Tyson Thompson is an exemplary student at his school where he excels in his studies, is courteous to his teachers and fellow classmates, and does his best to live each day by the high standards and ideals of Scouting; and

Whereas, Tyson Thompson has achieved all of this and more with the love, support, and encouragement he has continually received from his proud parents, Paul and Judy Thompson of Blue Springs:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty congratulations to Tyson Thompson at this proud moment of well-deserved distinction, and in wishing him only the very best as he continues to uphold the Scouting tradition with both honor and decorum; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Eagle Scout Tyson Thompson.
